

SEVERAL PUBLIC WORKS PROJECTS TO BE SCRAPPED

PWA PROGRAM WILL BE CUT 50 PER CENT

Secretary Ickes Has $425,000,000 For His Projects

Washington, Sept. 14.—(P)—Wide-spread repercussions based on fears that thousands of local public works projects might be scrapped today developed President Roosevelt's revision of the $425,000,000 work relief program.

Inquiries by the score fell upon public works officials, who were unable to give any definite assurances as to the fate of individual projects. There were indications, however, that Secretary Ickes would decide which projects would go forward immediately.

Whether this was involved in the President's settlement of basic differences in viewpoints of Ickes and Harry L. Hopkins, central figures in administering the expenditure of the billions, was not immediately ascertained.

Confronted with the task of scaling down their program around 50 per cent, PWA officials agreed that chances of approval for the average project had been cut virtually in half.

Mr. Roosevelt's decision to let Hopkins' work progress administration spend the remaining $1,350,000,000 of the work relief fund to provide jobs left Ickes with only $425,000,000 for public works. Congress had allocated $900,000,000.

The reliable indications that secretary Ickes would have exclusive power in selecting the projects to be financed by the $425,000,000 came when representative Disney (D-Okla.) said that Colonel Lawrence Westbrook, assistant work progress administrator, had told him that all PWA applications on file with WPA had been sent back to Ickes.

While these applications had not yet been received by WPA, some officials interpreted that move as meaning that Hopkins no longer would have veto power over public works projects.

A decided stir was occasioned recently when Hopkins turned down 2,000 public works projects involving $350,000,000. A possibility was seen that some of these might now be approved in cases where they were in line with the standards laid down by the president. Officials said virtually all of the projects could comply with the presidential yardstick.

FIND CASH, BONDS

Sterling, Ill., Sept. 14.—(P)—Secured in desk drawers and other places, $80,000 in cash and government bonds was found in the home of late John R. Johnson, eccentric farmer Sterling mayor, by the executor of his estate, Frank Seger.

Accumulation of the hoard was not suspected by Seger, who discovered the funds as he sought to compile effects of the state.

Johnson, an elderly man, had lived alone.

W. G. M'ADOO, 71, WEDS NURSE, 26; FATHER FROWNS

Ceremony Takes Place At Maryland Home Of Son-In-Law

By Bess Furman
Associated Press Staff Writer
Washington, Sept. 14.—(P)—Senator William Gibbs McAdoo, 71, drove his 26-year-old bride to "Bealls Pleasure" in Maryland today in his own small coupe for a wedding like those in Washington's time.

The small, pretty-profiled Miss Doris I. Cross, a nurse in the public health service, and the tall senator made their vows in the intimacy of a quaint living room authentically colonial.

A huge golden harp tinkled the Mendelssohn wedding march. A negro doorman admitted most distinguished guests to "Bealls Pleasure," the century-old ivy-covered colonial brick home of McAdoo's son-in-law, Brice Claggett.

McAdoo wore a blue-gray business suit. His bride was in a dark blue crepe tunic traveling dress, her dark blue off-the-face hat softened by a mere suggestion of a veil.

Their voices came clearly through an open window, into the country quietude as the lines were read by the Rev. Russell J. Clinchy of the Mount Pleasant Congregational church, the senator's as unperturbed as when he speaks in the senate; hers very low indeed, but unhesitating. The wedding prayer asked for them "great and high adventure on the way of life" as well as "peace, joy and abundance."

Miss Cross and McAdoo were first on the wedding scene, an hour before the ceremony to get the picture-taking and license-making detail over.

Wedding guests included the cabinet members, Secretaries Hull and Roper with their wives; the former personal physician of President Woodrow Wilson, Dr. Cary T. Grayson, with Mrs. Grayson; and the six children of Senator McAdoo by his first marriage.

Out in Oakland, Iowa, the bride's mother, Mrs. Nellie Cross, also informed by telephone, was first to give definite details of the nuptials. They came as a startling surprise to Washington where McAdoo has been a noted figure ever since he served as the war-time secretary of the treasury and married President Wilson's daughter, who was divorced from him in July, 1934.

Officials pointed to Frank Whiting, 49, of Beloit, O., held on a bad check charge, as the leader.

The other fugitives are John Bodish, 22, a Pontiac parolee, accused of an Aurora robbery; William Brunel, 34, Chicago, and Harry Shaffer, 22, De Kalb, charged with larceny and robbery respectively at Elgin; and George Bougadis, Melrose Park, named a participant in an Aurora road house robbery and a member of the Chicago "Country Club bandit gang."

The jail was remodelled recently at a cost of $12,000.

Politicians In Louisiana Have Ears To Ground In Fever Over Approaching General Election In January

By Ralph Wheatley
New Orleans, Sept. 14.—(P)—The state of Louisiana was in a political whirl tonight with politicians of every rank holding their ears to the ground to determine the public reaction.

They were in a fever over the approaching January elections, where a senator, all congressmen, a governor and state officials will be nominated in the Democratic primary election, the equivalent to election in Louisiana as the Republican party has a light following here.

While political lines were being drawn the district attorney's office announced an inquiry into the senator's assassination would be resumed Monday, with Long's bodyguards and eyewitnesses summoned.

Leaders of all factions were working on slates of candidates but they have produced squabbles among the conflicting groups.

Huey Long's slaying threw his organization into a whirl. He ran his machine with one man control and took to his grave the secret of his plans for the election.

As a result a schism was threatened between the conservative and liberal wings of the organization, which Governor O. K. Allen is seeking to hold together. The selection of a candidate for governor has caused the conservatives to square away with the liberals.

St. Louis Police Are Given Orders To Be "Polite"

St. Louis, Sept. 14.—(P)—It was "Pardon me, sir," and not "Hey, you," with the St. Louis police force today.

Chief John J. McCarthy issued an order warning the officers to be polite to the public or lose their jobs.

"Curb the wisecracking, sarcastic and slurring remarks," his order read. "Stop the practice of hawling out citizens who have committed some minor offense."

"Citizens are entitled to considerate and courteous treatment at all times and under all circumstances."

The chief said he had received "too many complaints" of inconsiderate police treatment.

LOUISE HAGEN WINS $2,500 DAMAGE SUIT

Is Awarded Judgment Against Eames MacVeagh

Chicago, Sept. 14.—(P)—Judge Joseph H. McGarry ruled in favor of Miss Louise Hagen today in her suit for breach of contract against James MacVeagh, 60-year-old scion of one of Chicago's oldest families whom she named as the father of her "love child," and awarded her a judgment of $2,500.

His decision came at the end of a lengthy day of argument by opposing counsel exposing the romance of thirty years ago between Miss Hagen, now a New York artist, then a Chicago manicure, and MacVeagh was regarded as the "most eligible bachelor" in Chicago society.

Miss Hagen sought the award on the strength of her contention that MacVeagh was delinquent in payments of $250 per month he had promised her after his marriage in 1929 to Miss Zelle Barthelmy, daughter of the former French consul in Chicago.

She said they entered the contract in which she was to make a trip to Europe and never make public the birth of her son, 24 years ago.

MacVeagh, who admitted on the stand the relationship charged by Miss Hagen, and his sweetheart of bygone days sat on opposite sides of counsel table today as State Senator James J. Barbour, defensive attorney, pictured the graying artist as "a coldly calculating fortune seeker."

MacVeagh was charged with coarces by Attorney Herbert R. Stiefel, representing Miss Hagen, because he decided to have the child adopted and refused to marry his sweetheart because his "family would never approve."

"Having besmirched the woman and ruined her for life," he said, "he calls her a blackmailer under the contract drawn up by Mr. Barbour. Miss Hagen's requests were not made until the money was due. If that's blackmail then I'm a party to it for demanding it be lived up to."

At no time during the trial was the whereabouts of the child, as far as is known still alive and 24 years old, disclosed.

FATHER CARROLL DIES

Litchfield, Ill., Sept. 14.—(P)—Mort. Patrick Francis Carroll, 80, for more than 50 years pastor of St. Mary's parish died today at St. Francis Hospital, where he had been a patient for the past four years. A native of Janesville, Wis., he came to the local parish in June, 1882. Bishop James A. Griffin of Springfield, said funeral services will be held Wednesday.

Roosevelt May Be Asked to Intervene In An Effort to Avert Coal Strike Monday

Bulletin

Washington, Sept. 15.—(P)—Appalachian soft coal operators and the United Mine Workers agreed shortly after midnight today to extend their present wage and hour contract until next Sunday midnight, thus averting a threatened strike in nearly every soft coal field in the country.

Washington, Sept. 14.—(P)—A last-minute appeal for President Roosevelt's intervention was planned tonight by Edward F. McGrady, labor department mediator, in a desperate effort to avert Monday's threatened soft coal strike.

He announced this step after operators had rejected a presidential proposal for a 15-day extension of the present Appalachian wage agreement, which expires Sunday night with a clause making wage increase in any new agreement retroactive.

McGrady, assistant secretary of labor, told newsmen he would ask the industry and the United Mine Workers to appoint a joint committee to sit with him while he discussed the situation by telephone with Mr. Roosevelt. He expected the president to make another plea for a truce.

FINGERPRINTS OF DEAD GIRL FOUND ON GUN

Officials Believe That Torch Singer Was Suicide

West Chester, Pa., Sept. 14.—(P)—A berillium report that the fingerprints of Miss Evelyn Hoy were found on the pistol that blasted her life strengthened the theory tonight that the diminutive blonde Broadway torch singer destroyed herself.

Charles Dunlap, expert of the Chester, Pa., police department, announced today an examination that two finger prints were found on the lethal weapon and that both of them were those of the actress.

After receiving Dunlap's report, Assistant District Attorney Ray B. Reed ordered the investigation continued, however, at least until a coroner's inquest is held, which tentatively has been set for next Wednesday.

County Detective Francis Grubb, who also examined the death pistol, said he found "three clear and distinct prints of the lower in 'normal gun grip position' on the weapon. He said fingerprints on other parts of the gun were blurred and could not be identified."

Pending the inquest, no official report will be entered as to the cause of the death of the 25-year-old Chantelle, who was found with a 45 calibre bullet through her temple in the bedroom of the country home of Henry H. Rogers, 3d, son of the late Standard Oil multi-millionaire, near Downingtown last Thursday.

Most investigating officials concurred in the statement of Dr. H. B. F. Davis after an autopsy, that "every evidence pointed to suicide."

The actress' father, Henry J. Hoy, St. Louis druggist, alone held a dissenting view. He has engaged an attorney to make a private inquiry.

ITALY'S REJECTION OF "COMPROMISE SOLUTION" SHOCKS LEAGUE MEMBERS

IL DUCE FIRM; ITALIANS MAY QUIT LEAGUE

No "Compromise" Or "Retreat" Will Be Accepted

By Charles H. Gupit
Associated Press Foreign Staff
Rome, Sept. 14.—(P)—The cabinet announced today Italy will accept no retreat or compromise on the course she has laid out in East Africa, even in the face of the possible armed opposition of Europe.

It indicated also that consideration is being given to the possibility of Italy's withdrawal from the league of nations in case her membership interferes with her objective.

The cabinet communique, issued after a session with Premier Mussolini, who holds eight portfolios, presiding, announced:

1. Intensification of East African military preparations.

2. Reinforcement of Italian defenses in Libya.

3. The adequacy of Italy's military forces "to respond to any menace whatsoever."

4. "Furnishing of war materials proceeds with intensified but regular rhythm."

5. Speeches at Geneva of Sir Samuel Hoare and Premier Pierre Laval were received "with the greatest calm."

6. Italy intends to fortify her friendship with France and her European collaboration.

7. The possibility of Italy leaving the league was examined.

8. The East African controversy admits no compromise.

9. The conflict has been made the rallying point of "anti-fascist forces."

The announcement that Mussolini had informed the cabinet Italy is prepared to meet "any menace from whatsoever direction it may come" was regarded by political circles as a definite challenge of Great Britain and the league of nations.

Particular significance was attached by informed quarters to the disclosure that Italy is strengthening her military forces in Libya. In view of the proximity to Egypt of this colony, administered by Gen. Italo Balbo, these preparations were regarded as a particularly pointed reply to the dispatch of British war vessels to the Mediterranean and the reinforcement of the Malta garrison.

Mystery Fleet Concentrated In Mediterranean

Upward Of Hundred British Warships Are Ready For Action

London, Sept. 14.—Upward of a hundred British warships—about the third biggest navy afloat—were believed by diplomats to be concentrated tonight in the serene waters of the Mediterranean.

Their officers, bent over navigators' charts, were about 250 units of the lighter Italian navy, ready to lend their force to the declaration of the Italian cabinet that it was prepared to meet any resistance that might be offered from whatever direction to Il Duce's moves.

Since the first of September, the pick of British fighting ships have been assembled in this troubled section.

Belief of the diplomatic observers was that more than 75 British fighting ships were gathered at Alexandria, Port Said, Malta, Gibraltar, Port Sudan and Haifa, while ten more were cruising in the Mediterranean and a fleet of about 25 ships, which sailed from Portland August 31, and was presumably still at sea, could have been concentrated in the vicinity of the Mediterranean.

Nearly another hundred units of the British home fleet was standing by at Portland for maneuvers announced to start Tuesday in Scottish waters. Naval men, however, observed that this fleet could receive sudden orders to change its plans and reach the Mediterranean in from three to five days.

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 14.—(P)—Governor Horner today issued a requisition for the return of Dale Stamper, who is to be released Sept. 19, from the federal prison at Atlanta, Ga., to Madison county to stand trial for the murder of Ralph Fulcham.

LABOR UNIONS CLAIM VICTORY; ADJOURN MEET

Chicago Parks Board Is Criticised In Resolutions

By Lester M. Hill
Belleville, Ill., Sept. 14.—(P)—Delegates to the 53rd annual convention of the Illinois State Federation of Labor were homeward bound tonight, claiming victory in the bitterest issue of the week-long meeting—their fight for prevailing wages on works progress administration projects.

The convention adjourned sine die this afternoon after a brief meeting marked only by the adoption of a resolution criticizing the Chicago parks board for its action in denying Father Charles E. Coughlin the use of Soldiers Field for an address.

By a last minute change all names and references to individuals were deleted from the resolution which, in its original form, had asked the resignation of R. J. Dunham as chairman of the board.

It was the works progress administration's security wage policy that brought attacks from the delegates both from the floor and in pointed resolutions.

Late yesterday, however, the executive committee of the Federation claimed success in its fight for the payment of prevailing wages after a series of conversations with Dr. Martin Bickham, WPA director of labor management. He said, the committee reported, that the prevailing wage could be paid on projects sponsored by the state or any political subdivision.

During the week-long meeting the convention endorsed a six-point legislative program to be advanced in the event the state assembly is called into special session.

The program included requests for unemployment insurance; a women's 8-hour bill; the placing of occupational diseases under the workmen's compensation act; restoration of the health, safety and comfort law in constitutional form or authorization of safety rules by an industrial commission; legislation relating to intra-state labor relations, similar to the federal labor relations act which affects inter-state matters; and full crew legislation for railroad workers.

PREPAREDNESS IS STRESSED BY ITALIANS

Many Small Nations Proclaim Fidelity To Covenant

By Wade Werner
Associated Press Foreign Staff
Geneva, Sept. 14.—(P)—Word of Italy's rejection of any "compromise solution" in the Ethiopian dispute burst like a hand grenade today in the assembly of the League of Nations.

The news came as an impressive procession of great and small powers, including Soviet Russia and the Dominion of Canada, proclaimed from the platform their fidelity to the league covenant.

Shortly afterward the Ethiopian delegation submitted a detailed answer to the charges contained in the Italian memorandum laid before the council last week by Baron Pompeo Aloisi.

The answer asserted that if conditions in Ethiopia were really even "one-tenth as bad" as the Italian complaint asserted, foreign legations in Addis Ababa long ago would have made a joint protest to the civilized world.

A section of the Italian communique stressing Italy's military preparedness against menace "from any direction whatsoever" was interpreted by some delegates as a direct challenge to Great Britain.

A long list of speakers appeared regardless of the communique. But after the day's oratory was over the text of the Italian communique—posted on the League's bulletin board—remained the chief center of interest.

A spokesman for the Italian delegation said no aggressive intention was behind the Italian cabinet action. It was merely defensive measure, he said, "not aimed at anyone."

Canada's representative, George Howard Ferguson, told the assembly that if a peaceful solution cannot be reached, "Canada will join other members of the League in considering how, by unanimous action, peace can be maintained."

"There is only the question of defending the covenant of the league as the instrument of peace," said Maxim Litvinoff, Soviet commissar for foreign affairs. Litvinoff created surprise by saying the "covenant is not enough" and asserting certain bilateral nonaggression pacts "actually are designed for security and aggression."

Man Who Killed Policeman Given Life Sentence
Case Of Mixed Identity Is Finally Settled By Jury's Verdict

St. Louis, Sept. 14.—(P)—Tried for the fourth time in a unique case of mixed identity, George Couch, an ex-convict, was convicted by a circuit court jury tonight of the murder of Patrolman Albert Siko and was sentenced to life imprisonment.

Another man, Louis De More, Chicago taxicab driver, once pleaded guilty and went to the penitentiary to serve a life term for the crime.

A chance arrest gave police information which led to the apprehension of Couch and his indictment. De More then repudiated his confession and said he pleaded guilty because he feared a death sentence if he stood trial. He was pardoned.

The patrolman was shot and killed in April, 1934, as he pursued a man who held up and robbed a street car operator. Before he died he identified De More. There is a striking resemblance, however, between De More and Couch.

Couch, who once served a term in the Indiana state penitentiary for robbery, was convicted and sentenced to life imprisonment at his first trial, but he was granted a new trial. Two later trials resulted in hung juries.

His counsel announced today they would file a motion for a new trial and, if denied, would appeal.

SEARCH FOR BODY

Danville, Ill., Sept. 14.—(P)—Lake Vermilion was searched today for the body of Douglas Harper, 17, high school student, drowned last night when his canoe overturned. Emery Seeds, 19, in the craft with Harper, clung to it and was rescued.

We Interpret News

Hamburg, Germany, Sept. 14.—(P)—William Gill, 21-year old seaman of Neponset, Mass., was sentenced to four weeks in jail today for "gross misconduct" because he made a derogatory remark about Adolf Hitler and whistled the "Internationale."

Gill was arrested on a ferryboat last Sunday. He had shipped here from New York August 28 on the S. S. Washington of the United States Lines.

If you have read the above news item, you may be wondering whether it has any special meaning. How does it fit into the course of human events? We have chosen this item because we think it has some relation to the general scheme of history.

In the first place, it means that you can't whistle the "Internationale" in Germany and get away with it, especially if you are riding on a Hamburg ferryboat. Not that the Nazis object to whistling, but they don't like the air. And its a safe bet Bill Gill won't like the atmosphere of a German jail. Next time he'll be careful what and where he whistles.

In the second place, the item forces us to the conclusion that at least one American can whistle the communist anthem well enough for a Nazi to recognize it. We are sorry to have to admit this, and we hope there are no more of our citizens like that, but we are afraid there are. It's a mystery to us why any citizen of the United States would be whistling or singing the "Internationale" and scattering his patriotism all over Russia when he ought to be singing "America" and upholding the Constitution of his own country.

Reading in Order

The women of one of the clubs in a county community are starting a circulating library. With the coming of longer evenings and cooler weather, reading good books appears to be a most profitable way to spend leisure time. A library to circulate among organized groups in rural communities is of great benefit in supplying the necessary books. Good readers can handle several books in a season. If the books are the better class of fiction or of more serious content, the readers will find they have profited much from the time spent in their perusal. Residents of this city and county should not forget that this city has excellent library facilities which may be had for the asking. Anyone who desires may secure any number of good book at the public library, an institution that renders inestimable service to the entire community.

History Repeats Self in Ethiopian Affair

By Bruce Catton
Just about the least effective way of meeting any great crisis in life is to throw up the hands in horror and declare that the whole business is shocking to the moral sensibilities. So far, however, that seems to be about all that the statesmen of the earth have been able to do in the face of the pending war between Italy and Ethiopia.

To be sure, the whole proposition is shocking. There is something about this bold assertion that might make right, this unblinking preparation for the seizure by the strong of the weak's valuables, which sounds exactly like the conversation of some of the gas house gang as they get ready to go out to hold up a delicatessen store. But the world's history is made up of an endless string of stories just like it, and it is hard to think of a single great nation whose people have the right to point their fingers in scorn.

The North American continent, while not on the subject, used to belong to the Indians. They were a backward people, but they were happy in their homeland. How did we get here, anyway, if not in the same way that the Italians are preparing to get into Ethiopia?

What we did to the Indians, what the English did to the Boers, what France did to the North African tribesmen, what the Dutch did to the Japanese—that, and nothing more, is what Italy is going to do to the Ethiopians.

World peace cannot be preserved by pious expressions of horror from nations with such records. The Italian come-back is too apt.

It might help considerably if we would forget all about the "moral issues" in this and other wars and concentrate on the realities.

World civilization as at present constituted gives to each virile industrial nation certain pressing needs—needs for expanding markets, raw material sources, and the like. A modern nation must have those things if it is to avoid lapsing into a condition of slow decay. If it can't get them in any other way, it will fight for them.

That is why Japan went into Manchuria. It is why Italy is going into Africa. It is why Germany is restlessly looking for a weak place in the steel wall that surrounds it.

If we hope to keep the world at peace, it is utterly useless to keep saying that war is an evil thing. These nations need some sort of outlet, and if they can't get it in one way they will in another.

If the powers which have already grabbed their share of the loot will consent to some sort of divvying-up, or if all the powers will do something to rid the world of tariff barriers, preferential trade agreements and the like, we can have the basis for an enduring peace. If not—then, no matter how it horrifies us, there are going to be more wars.

Jerseyville Man's Arm Broken by Car

Driver Backs Up to Give Aid, But Runs Over Victim Again

Jerseyville.—Edward Sunderland of Jerseyville is recovering from a fracture of his right arm sustained Wednesday evening. Sunderland reported that the accident occurred while he was walking across a railroad track in the eastern part of the city. He says an automobile struck him as he passed and knocked him to the ground and that when the driver of the car backed up to see if Sunderland was injured, the vehicle ran over the Jerseyville man's arm. "The name of the driver was not learned."

Sunderland's arm pained him considerably but he did not consult a physician until Thursday afternoon. An X-ray examination of the injury showed that the arm was fractured just above the wrist.

Truck Catches Fire
The Jerseyville Fire Department was called out Thursday evening to extinguish a fire which threatened the destruction of a truck belonging to Sylvester Long.

The truck caught fire on the highway near the Hugh Snell farm about 8:45 o'clock Thursday evening and two tires were burned. The vehicle was not injured otherwise and the tractor with which it was loaded was not damaged in any way.

Supreme Court Justices Moving Into Dazzling New $11,000,000 Home . . . Along With Them Go Familiar High-Backed Chairs and 60,000 Tomes to Aid Decisions on New Deal Acts When Fall Session Opens October 7

BY WILLIS THORNTON
Journal and Courier Washington Correspondent

Washington.—Although the U. S. Supreme Court will not officially be installed in its monumental new building until it meets there for the fall session Oct. 7, the justices are already "moving in."

Several have brought part of their equipment over from the historic old quarters in the Capitol building, and one of Chief Justice Hughes' clerks is already beginning to get Hughes' suite in order.

The old-fashioned high-backed chairs have been brought there from the old courtroom and they look very odd indeed in the beautiful, new, up-to-date setting. Of course they will be replaced with modern furniture later.

As soon as a huge rug is set and draperies hung in the magnificent court chamber, the central feature of the new building, it will be virtually completed after four years of work.

Great Collection Is Gift
The Gerry collection of 36,000 volumes, legal reports and treatises, old vellum-bound tomes in Latin and Greek dating back 400 years, and general volumes relating to law and police administration, has already been installed in the justices' library.

This collection was made by the late Elbridge T. Gerry and presented to the court by Senator Peter G. Gerry of Rhode Island, son of the collector.

It is expected to extend the collection by continuing series of reports already begun. A special act was required to accept the books, and Librarian Oscar Clark is among those who hope that a general law may be passed enabling the Supreme Court library to accept donations generally as does the Library of Congress.

The latter is loaning some 25,000 volumes to the Supreme Court to grace its shelves, which have room for nearly 250,000. Other law collections have already been offered the court.

Dazzling Pile of Marble
It is hard to believe that there is anywhere else in the world so utterly dazzling a pile of marble as this building. The exterior is of white Vermont marble, the interior of Alabama marble, with Georgia marble facing the four interior courts.

About the main court chamber stand huge columns of pink-mottled Siena marble. Marble staircases, marble walls, marble columns and pillars, entablatures, pediments, and friezes. Such wood-carving, as graces the heavy white-oak woodwork of reading rooms, dining rooms and private judicial suites has seldom been achieved in this country. Medallions, friezes, borders, bas-reliefs cut into the oak panelings.

It is all very beautiful, very massive and dignified, and very expensive. Total cost of the building will be close to $11,000,000.

Friezes Magnificent
When the judges take their seats in October to pronounce their verdict on New Deal legislation, they will sit at the head of what is certainly one of the most impressive chambers in the world. Sculptured friezes run around the four walls at the high ceiling. At the sides of the room march Menes, Hammurabi, Moses, Solomon, Lycurgus, Solon, Draco, Confucius, and Octavian, Justinian, Mohammed, Charlemagne, King John, St. Louis, Grotius, Blackstone, Marshall, and Napoleon.

The justices will look straight at a

Miss Brady Becomes Bride in Ceremony Saturday Afternoon

Jacksonville Young Woman Weds Arthur Henderson at Home of Parents

The marriage vows of Miss Mary Margaret Brady, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Brady, and Arthur Wright Henderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Henderson, were spoken Saturday afternoon at four o'clock in a candle light service of impressive simplicity at the Brady residence, 5 Duncan Place. About fifty friends and relatives witnessed the ceremony.

Preceding the ceremony a musical program was presented by Miss Lucile Harper of Mt. Sterling. Her selections included "To the Rising Sun" (Toussaint), "Song of Love" (Schubert), "Bells of St. Mary's" (Adams), "Alhambra" (Berlin), "Indian Love Call" (Friml), and "Mystery of Life" (Herbert). The strains of "Lohengrin" (Wagner) announced the approach of the bride party.

The bride, preceded by the maid of honor, was accompanied by her father who later gave her in marriage. They joined the groom and best man before the fire-place which was banked with ferns and white gladioli and lighted with white tapers. Rev. William C. Meeker read the single ring service.

Gown an Heirloom
The bride was gowned in white silk and lace with train and a full length veil held in place by a wreath of orange blossoms. It was the wedding dress of her only aunt who wore it thirty years ago. The handkerchief carried by the bride had been carried by the grandmother and mother of the groom at their weddings. She carried a bridal bouquet of white asters.

Miss Louise Anthony of Athens, Ill., who attended the bride as maid of honor, was dressed in pink mouseline de soie. She carried a bouquet of pink asters and lavender budies. James Burch of Franklin, Ill., cousin of the groom, served as best man.

Attended Schools Here
Mrs. Henderson is a graduate of the Jacksonville High school and Illinois College. While in college she served as president of Sigma Phi Epsilon Society and was active in Y. W. C. A. work. She is a member of Phi Delta Sigma, honorary scholastic society. For the past four years she has been instructor in Commerce, French, and Dramatics in the Versailles High school.

Mr. Henderson is a graduate of Jacksonville High school, Brown's Business College, and Illinois College. While in college he was assistant in the Biology laboratory. At present Mr. Henderson is a student in the School of Medicine of Washington University in St. Louis. He is a member of Alpha Kappa Kappa fraternity.

Following a reception at the residence, Mr. and Mrs. Henderson left for a short wedding trip after which they will be at home in St. Louis.

Gophers Find Men For Lund's Position

Plenty of Backs Available for Coach; Opposite is True at Chicago

Chicago—(P)—If Minnesota's backs are as good as they are numerous this year, the loss of Francis "Pug" Lund will not amount to a crippling blow. Lund, leader of great Gopher backfields for three years and an all American selection in 1933 and 1935, left a large hole when he was graduated, but the variety of power displayed in yesterday's scrimmage indicated it can be filled. During the session Coach Bernie Bierman used nine backs in his first team attacking force.

The situation was directly opposite at Chicago. Ned Bartlett, a probable regular at halfback, showed up with blistered feet. Coach Clark Shaughnessy had no suitable replacement, and had to delay a drill on new plays. Illinois regulars defeated the reserves in a game length scrimmage on two touchdowns by right end Bob Wright. An unexpected scrimmage at Purdue showed Noble Kizer a strong defensive line, but one which played erratically on the offense.

Ohio State and Wisconsin stressed offensive maneuvers in long sessions, while Northwestern and Iowa stuck to fundamentals. Bo McMillin selected a tentative Indiana varsity lineup with Antonini and Kenderdine at ends, Dal Sasso and McDaniel, tackles; Davis and Risher, guards; Kelso, center, and Huffman, Keck, Fox and Cherry in the backfield. Harry Kipke gave the Michigan squad a light session, but promised the heaviest workout of the season for today. An injury to stark Ritchie, sophomore halfback, at first diagnosed as a fractured ankle, dwindled to a sprain after an X-ray examination.

50 PLAYERS REPORT AT NORTH CENTRAL

Naperville, Ill.—A squad of fifty candidates led by 11 lettermen will report for the first gridiron drill of the year at North Central college, Monday, Sept. 16. The veterans returning are: Co-Captains Al Dittman, Aurora and Bill Spiegler, Naperville, halfbacks; Mike Adair, Chicago and Paul Russell, Aurora, fullbacks; Herb Heilmann, Moosheart, East Chicago, Ind., and James Starke, Naperville, ends; Robert Marquardt, Lombard and Frank Littleford, Downers Grove, guards and Lloyd Wunsch, Pontiac, tackle.

College And I. S. D. Gridders To Get To Work On Monday

With two local teams putting the finishing touches on their preparations to open up their football seasons this week-end, two others will shake out the wrinkles and odor of mothballs beginning this Monday when they report for their initial practices. Almost all of the Illinois College varsity squad is in the city, awaiting the opening call, and Illinois School for the Deaf athletes will get down to work Monday, the first day of the drill season for them.

For J.H.S. and Routt, however, this will be a feverish, hard week. Both teams will be getting ready to open their football schedules; J.H.S. with Pittsfield on the local field next Saturday, and Routt against Trinity high at Bloomington next Sunday.

Both teams have been at their gridding work for two weeks and both coaches have a pretty good idea as to what is going on. J. H. S. is starting out with what promises to be a dogged, if at times sluggish team, whereas Routt will again have its speedy backfield and a promising, if green lineup.

Both freshmen and upper-classmen will be called out Monday for the college drills. Coach Ray Nussplicker expects to get down to hard work the first day of the drilling, in order to whip a team into shape for the game with Western Michigan Teachers at Kalamazoo on Sept. 28. He will have

Hitchcock Leads His Two Couples Wed by Team to Polo Win Local Minister in Ceremonies Here

Accounts for Nine Goals in 15 to 9 Victory Over
Long Island

New York—(P)—The Tommy Hitchcock of ten-goal days has come back to ride again.

Riding as he did in the old days, Hitchcock led the Greentree players to a 15-9 victory over Long Island in the first round of the open championships at Cochran field yesterday. He turned in a startling exhibition of stickwork, strategy, horsemanship, and ball following as he personally accounted for nine goals. In a game that was somewhat loosely played, Hitchcock continually emerged from melees, dribbling the ball into position for a slam at the posts.

It was two years since Hitchcock, formerly handicapped at ten goals, but now at nine, played in a major event.

The first semi-final of the tournament will be played late today on International field between Aurora and the Hurricanes. On Sunday the Templeton team, open champions, will make the first defense of its title against Greentree.

Carl Phillips and Alleene Coker, both of Springfield.

Henry Herron, Manchester, and Allie Ethel Walker, Winchester.

Arthur Roy Waters, Girard, and Ella Ray Rolland, Palmyra.

Dear Sirs:

We want to tell you that our first year with our Iron Fireman Stoker has been a great success and from watching it perform I have no doubt but that it will continue to give us the same satisfaction for many years to come.

We kept the temperatures in our home at 75 degrees during the day time and dropped them to 70 degrees at night. I am confident that we did not have a fluctuation of more than two degrees from what we had the thermostat set for. This even temperature all of the winter certainly was a pleasure.

Our coal bill for the entire winter was exactly $26.00 which is a 65 percent savings over the cost of hand-firing and approximately 80 percent savings over another form of automatic heating.

I have tried several ways of heating our home and I am now convinced that the Iron Fireman way is the most satisfactory and economical of them all. In fact, we think so much of it that we would not take any price for it if it could not be replaced.

Sincerely yours,

CURTIS TEMPLIN

Lukeman Motor Co. To Continue Super-Service Business

Negotiations for a change in management of the Ford Automobile Agency in this city are reported near completion. George Lukeman, head of the Lukeman Motor Co., which has had the agency for several years, stated today that he will continue to operate his super-service station on West State street and the used car lot on the old Dunlap House site.

Mr. Lukeman stated that the service end of the business has grown steadily during the three years he has been operating the super-service station. The building was modernized and complete modern equipment for servicing cars installed. The National Safety Clinic is maintained at the station, where cars are given free testing.

Mr. Lukeman pointed out that greater opportunities exist for a service business that is not connected with a car agency. He stated that all types of cars will be given equal attention at the Lukeman station, and that the company will continue to deal in used cars.

The service station is to have a writeup in a forthcoming issue of "Motor," which has a special number dedicated to the New York automobile show. The article concerning the local enterprise will appear in this number, together with photographs, and will be given wide circulation.

It is reported that the Ford Agency will be taken over and managed by John M. Pine, well known Winchester business man, now agent for the Ford Motor company in the Scott county seat.

The BLUE DOOR

Rachel Mack

© 1935 NEA Service, Inc.

BEGIN HERE TODAY

RUTH WOODSON, pretty, high-spirited girl of 19, in search of work, was sent to a stern old man, the owner of a blue door. The queer old caretaker, PENNY, who had known her for years, was a little bit of a fiddle.

As a matter of fact the old woman did look stronger. She was bent and shuffling. She moved more purposefully. She said, "Now that you've finished your breakfast, Miss Elaine, I've a message for you from Mister John McNeill. He wants you to drive to Cleveland with him today, bein' as he has to go there on business. He'll start about 11 o'clock. He says he won't take 'No' for an answer. He says even if you are here on a rest cure there's no cause for you buryin' yourself."

Ruth laughed. "He won't have to take 'No' for an answer, Penny. I'll snatch at the chance—unless you need me here at home."

"I don't need you," replied Bertha with promptness.

Ruth laughed again for sheer joy and ran upstairs to her room. She had ample time to clean her room, set her hair and dress. She thought of a quip she had once heard in a clever talkie. An actress had drawn, "Any woman's in heaven when she's going some where and has something to wear."

Ruth told herself, "That's me going somewhere with someone I care about, and I've got something to wear!"

JOHN McNEILL called for her at 11. "Good girl," he said, "on time! You don't keep the busy business man waiting. You look sweet, by the way, in that two shades of green get-up. Another new one?"

"Not new," Ruth answered, "except to you. It's even got little darned places in it. It's knitted."

"I know," he said, starting the car. "My mother does 'em. She knits 'em for herself and my married sister in Washington, Florence."

"Oh, yes," said Ruth. "She's older than you." She made the guess recklessly, since she knew she ought to recall his family.

"Yes," John replied. "Picture me with a 10-year-old nephew and two nieces, aged 5!"

John McNeill was constantly being greeted by people on the street and he lifted his hand in impartial salute to leading citizens, colored porters, traffic cops and pretty ladies. "Hi, Pete!" This to a lanky young chap descending the courthouse steps. "How's the boy?"

Ruth was relieved that they did not pause to see how the boy was, for she suspected, and rightly, that here was someone Elaine Chalmers was supposed to remember. "Pete," Ashton, explained John, avoiding an ice cream truck by a hair's breadth. "He and his sister used to play in your back yard when you were here. They sold their old home and moved out on the Heights a couple of years ago. Alice goes to Mount Holyoke. Pete's about to be a senior at Yale."

"Think of that!" remarked Ruth politely. "All grown up."

"Funny thing," John said. "Just last summer Pete and I were laughing about the day you and Alice dressed up in some old finery you found in a trunk and Pete and I yanked your trains off. We were fastening them to the fagpole out."

She said to Bertha, refilling her coffee cup, "It's a small world, isn't it, Penny? And the newspapers bind us all together. They're the greatest power of all—greater than airships and armies and navies. Nothing's hid from the newspapers, and the newspapers hide nothing."

The old woman stared at her without blinking. "The newspapers think they're pretty smart. I guess. But there's some that can outwit 'em."

White Hall, Rev. W. W. Rowlen, pastor of the Christian church in Carrollton will speak next and then a round table discussion will be held after which Rev. J. A. Carville of Jerseyville will deliver an inspirational sermon.

PLAN SERIES OF WHEAT CONTROL COUNTY MEETS

Wheat Payments Not Affected By Crop Cut In 1936 Is Report

One mistaken idea about the new 1936-1939 AAA wheat program which is cropping up in some quarters is that it will not be worth while for farmers to sign up because only 5 per cent adjustment will be required on the 1936 crop, according to local Farm Bureau officials.

Neither the 5 per cent reduction on the 1936 crop nor the reductions in subsequent years have anything to do with the AAA adjustment payments to cooperating wheat farmers, he said. As in the old contract, these payments will continue to be based on 54 per cent of the signer's average annual production during the base period.

This is the farm allotment and represents that portion of the crop required annually to meet domestic needs.

From the consumer's standpoint, the adjustment payments thus operate to make it worth while for farmers to continue producing enough wheat for domestic needs instead of being forced out of business. At the same time the adjustment payments are designed to give farmers a parity price on their farm allotments, thus restoring their purchasing power for city goods and manufactured articles. The benefit payments also give the farmer partial crop insurance and give cooperators an advantage over non-cooperators.

Consumers are further protected in the wheat program by the requirement which compels each contract signer to seed a sufficient acreage to produce, under average conditions, 54 per cent of his production during the base years. Thus the cooperator is required to seed enough wheat to supply his portion of the domestic need and is guaranteed a parity price for that amount.

The first adjustment for each year will be made as soon as the compliance for that crop is approved. This payment will be approximately two-thirds of the difference between average farm and parity prices at that time. At the end of the marketing year the second payment will be in an amount to bring the producer a parity payment on his farm allotment equivalent to the difference between the average farm price and parity price for the entire marketing year.

Adjustment payments under the new wheat contract will not be affected by the fact that acreage adjustments may be changed from year to year to keep production as nearly as possible in line with domestic and foreign demand, thus preventing a recurrence of the ruinous surpluses of 1932 and 1933.

The schedule of educational meetings on wheat control was announced at the Morgan county Farm Bureau offices Saturday. The meetings will be held at night as follows:
